

PRESIDIO BAY VENTURES NAMES LINDSEY FISHER AS DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

January 30, 2020

SAN FRANCISCO - (January 30, 2020) – Presidio Bay Ventures (PBV), a leading Bay Area commercial real estate investment and development firm with a portfolio valued at nearly $1 billion, has hired Lindsey Fisher as Director of Development. In this role Fisher will oversee all current and future development activities for the company.

“Lindsey’s well-rounded and extensive experience in all phases of real estate development will undoubtedly be a tremendous asset at Presidio Bay,” said K. Cyrus Sanandaji, Managing Director at Presidio Bay Ventures. “We’re excited for Lindsey’s addition to the team as we continue to grow our portfolio throughout the Bay Area and beyond.”

Fisher brings over 10 years of commercial real estate experience, which extends to all aspects of for-sale residential developments including the entitlement, design, construction, sales, and operations phases. Fisher was previously Vice President at Pacific Eagle Holdings where she started in 2012 as Assistant Property Manager. Prior to joining Pacific Eagle Holdings, Fisher was a Marketing and Tenant Coordinator for Cushman & Wakefield.

“I am thrilled to be joining the Presidio Bay team,” said Fisher. “This group has a tremendous skillset, outlook and future, and I look forward to being an integral part of it.”